This paint is a flour, corn starch, baking soda & F.D. & C dyes and is non-toxic; also free of any heavy metals. It can stain clothing, but most will wash out. As with anything dirty, we suggest washing garments sooner than later. Animals are not allowed to participate in the race. To avoid getting color on car seats we advise to bring towels for the ride home. The paint should not interfere with vision or breathing however we advise anyone with a breathing condition, or are pregnant consult their doctor before participating. To protect eyes we advise wearing sunglasses or a bandana around their mouth. The race is not timed, and there is a color explosion celebration held at the end of the race free to anyone who would like to participate.
